7. [ ] Met with Mr. William Cook, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who told me that H. R. 6483, the bill for promotion of members of the Marine Corps to full general was reported out by the full Committee but that one member has insisted during discussion that the number of generals authorized by the bill be reduced from four to three. From present indications, a member may well propose a similar amendment on the floor of the House when the bill comes up for consideration. Mr. Cook told me that the leadership has recommended that the Committee procure a rule on the bill and not attempt passage on either the Consent Calendar or by suspension of the rules. Although a letter requesting hearing by the Rules Committee on the bill is in the mill, the hearing cannot take place earlier than the week of 7 June. Consideration on the floor of the House will be scheduled after the hearing by the Rules Committee. Mr. Cook apologized that the report on the bill has not yet been received from the printers but may be available tomorrow. [ ] has been advised. 25X1

9. [ ] Met with Mr. Arthur Kuhl, Chief Clerk, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who returned to me for retention by the Agency the [ ] which had been given to Chairman Fulbright. Mr. Kuhl noted, in passing, that the Radios bill may well continue to get a bad time in the Committee due to Chairman Fulbright's opposition to the formation of a committee or organization to take Federal funds and dispense them to the Radios as is presently provided in the proposed legislation under consideration before the Committee. 25X1

10. [redacted] Returned to Miss Angie Morris, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, the classified documents that were held for Mr. Lowenstein during his absence from the country.

11. [redacted] In connection with possible pacification hearings by the House Foreign Operations and Government Information Subcommittee, spoke with staff members Vincent Augliere and Norman Cornish and learned that, in all probability, the hearings will be open session unless classified information is discussed and that the hearings on pacification by the Subcommittee have not yet been given the green light. [redacted] has been advised.
